Army and Navy News

guardsmen swell the size of the forces, and give general officers practise in directing large bodies of troops.

In referring to the departure of the District of Columbia National Guard for the Massachusetts maneuvers, the Washington Star says:

General orders have been issued from headquarters, National Guard, District of Columbia, giving further details of annual field exercises, which will be held in Massachusetts from August 12 to not later than August 27.

The brigade, except the 1st Battery, Field Artillery, and the details with horses will embark on the U. S. Army transports Summer and McClellan on the evening of August 11. The exact time and place of assembly will be announced later.

The 1st Battery, the detachments with galling guns, Signal Corps detachments with two signal corps wagons, details with horses, and about 125 horses will go by rail to New York and embark there in accordance with detailed instructions to be given later.

In the field exercises, the regiments, the 1st Separate Battalion and separate organizations will prepare themselves to operate independently, arranging all details concerning their own transportation, hiring of horses, subsistence and similar matters after conference with the heads of the various staff departments.

During the exercises each officer and enlisted man will be supplied with one olive drab shirt, to be worn at all times during active operations, and with one dark blue channel shirt, to be carried in the blanket roll and to be used for sleeping.

The quartermaster's department will furnish the necessary transportation and will assign officers and organizations to quarters on transports.

The escort wagons and ambulances allowed for the movement will be furnished at points of debarkation.

Quartermasters of organizations will confer with the quartermaster, National Guard, District of Columbia, concerning necessary details.

The subsistence department will make arrangements for the subsistence of the command on transports and on shore.

One commissary sergeant and one cook from the United States Army will be assigned to each transport; the remaining cooks will be supplied from the National Guard.

Each company, band, separate organization and the division field hospital will have a kitchen with prescribed equipment.

One cook and one assistant cook will be allowed each kitchen, except 1st Battery, Field Artillery, which will be allowed one cook and two assistant cooks.

Enlisted cooks will be used wherever practicable, and for the field exercises this year will be paid the difference between their pay as enlisted cooks and the rates of pay for cooks and assistant cooks. The payrolls for civilian cooks and for extra compensation of enlisted cooks will be prepared by regimental commissaries for their regiments, and by commanding officers of separate organizations for their organizations.

Officers' messes will not exceed one for militia headquarters, one for division field hospital, four for each regiment and one for each separate organization. No allowance is made for the hire of cooks for officers' messes, and these cooks will be paid by the officers. While on transports a mess officer will be designated to run the officers' mess on each transport.

No ammunition of any kind will be carried on transports.

All organization commanders will make rigid inspections before embarking at Washington and before embarking for the return trip to see that this order is enforced.

The ordnance department will make the necessary arrangements for distribution of blank ammunition for the rifle, revolver, field artillery and gatling guns, which will be distributed at points of debarkation.

The following officers will be mounted: The commanding general and staff, the regular officers detailed for duty with the National Guard, the colonel, lieutenant colonel, adjutant, quartermaster and commissary of each regiment; the major, adjutant, quartermaster and commissary of each battalion; the medical officers of the command, the officers of the 1st Battery, Field Artillery, the officer commanding signal company. The amount allowed for horse hire will not exceed $3 per horse per day. Five mounted orderlies will be allowed militia headquarters; one mounted orderly, one mounted noncommissioned officer and two horses for galling gun, and not to exceed four mounted Hospital Corps men will be allowed each regiment; one mounted Hospital Corps man and one mounted orderly will be allowed the 1st Separate Battalion.

The medical department will furnish the necessary medicines and medical attendance, and will organize the Division Field Hospital, as indicated in recent memorandum from headquarters Department of the East.

Government employees will be given certificates for duty performed under the requirements of this general order.

WILL SELL KAPAA LOTS.

Superintendent and Commissioner Marston Campbell will in a few days advertise for sale the balance of the Kapaa lots. These consist of all the town lots and 999 year leases not disposed of by Mr. Pratt when he was commissioner of Public Lands. The sale will wind up that part of the Kapaa matter, though it has nothing to do with the Kapaa exchange.

DON'T IGNORE SLIGHT INJURIES.

wound or bruise prompt attention.
